This is to acknowledge receipt of your recent letter regarding the possibility of immigrating to the United States. I greatly regret to inform you that the radio broadcast which you heard must have been in error. No law has been passed which makes such a provision for those who served with the Office of Strategic Services, which would allow them to immigrate to this country other than through the normal channels. Any general information regarding immigration must come from the nearest American Consul to your home.

I should also add that there is no American law, either at present or in contemplation, which would guarantee employment to former employees of the Office of Strategic Services who do immigrate to the United States.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

15/
